N.B.—The reason of so few discharges of bills of sale, &c., being registered is mainly owing to the difficulty of proving the certificate of satisfaction as required by the Act (No. 8 of 5th Vic.), viz., the acknowledgment by the mortgagee of his signature to the certificate of satisfaction or proof of execution by said mortgagee by one of two witnesses upon affidavit before the Registrar-General or his deputy. For this reason the greater portion are allowed to lapse.

* The great increase in the number is partly owing to the fact that Hire Agreements, Mortgages of Stock and Liens and Settlements are included.

* Loan raised by Colonisation Commissioners. + Aid from Imperial Government. ‡ Aid to Revenue by issue of Bonds and Treasury Bills.
§ Immigration ceased in these years. ¶ Deposit on Account of £250,000, Treasury Bills, under Act 418/87.

NOTE.—Prior to 1851, all remittances to the Land and Emigration Commissioners were carried to account by the Colonial Treasurer as sums expended on immigration, and the receipts in England by the Land and Emigration Commissioners were never included in the accounts of the Colony—an adjustment of accounts was, however, made in the year 1853.

Reading-room (newspapers and periodicals) in the Institute Building.

The Reading-room contains all the South Australian newspapers, several of the leading newspapers from each of the other Australian colonies, and various English, Irish, and Scotch newspapers; also most of the best English periodicals.

The attendance cannot be given, as there are no means of registering it, but there is little doubt that it is greater than that in any other department of the institution.

Note.—The different departments are open to the public during the following hours, viz.:—

Public Library—Week days, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Sundays, 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.
Museum (Summer)—Week days, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Sundays, 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.

[1] The areas here given, except in the case of New Zealand, are the results of planimetrical calculations made in the office of the Surveyor-General, Melbourne. Except in the case of Western Australia, the area of which differs from the official estimate by 84,000 square miles, these results agree closely with the figures furnished officially by the various colonies. See also Victorian Year-Book, 1887-8, Vol. I., page 87.

[2] In making up the estimates of population in Victoria and New South Wales, allowance has been made for unrecorded emigration since the census of 1881—the date of the last census. If this had not been done, the population of Victoria would have been set down as 1,072,107, and that of New South Wales as 1,078,205. Moreover, censuses having been taken in New Zealand and Queensland in the early part of 1886 the populations of those colonies are probably nearer the truth than those of some of the other colonies which had no census since 1881.

[3] On the 30th June, 1888, the estimated population of Victoria was 1,060,420, viz., 564,320 males and 496,100 females.

[4] Maoris are not included. On the 28th March, 1886, these numbered 41,969, viz., 22,840 males and 19,129 females. On the 30th June, 1888, the estimated population of New Zealand was 604,865.

NOTE.—The Immigration and Emigration in this table is by sea only. No account is, or can be, taken of persons going from colony to colony overland.

[1] The figures in these columns understate the truth. Many persons leave all the colonies by sea without their departure being noted.

[2] In consequence of the Emigration returns being defective, as stated in the last footnote, the figures in these columns are too high. Where the minus sign (−) appears it indicates that the emigrants exceeded the immigrants by the number against which it is placed.

[3] According to Imperial returns, the number of persons who left the United Kingdom for the Australasian colonies in 1887 was 35,198, and the number who returned to the United Kingdom from these colonies was 10,592. The excess in favour of departures was thus 24,606, or less than two-fifths of the excess of immigrants over emigrants shown in the table.

* Where asterisks occur the information has not been furnished or is incomplete.

NOTE.—The figures of revenue and expenditure for Victoria are for the twelve months ended 30th June, but those for the other colonies are for the calendar year. Refunds of revenue, drawbacks, and such similar entries, are rigidly excluded from the accounts of revenue and expenditure of Victoria, but are included in those of New South Wales and Queensland, also in those of some of the other colonies. See also Note 5.

[1] The amounts in this column are made up of Excise duties, including licences imposed for revenue purposes; duties on bank notes; stamps, other than those for fees of office; legacy, succession, and probate duties; property and income taxes; and any other impost, payable to the General Government, levied distinctly as a tax; but excluding fees, licences, and charges for special services rendered.

[2] According to a statement made up in the Treasury, but not audited, the figures for Victoria during the year ended 30th June, 1888, were as follow:—Revenue from Customs, £2,353,050; other taxes, £685,988 (partly estimated); from Crown lands, £656,219; from Railways, £2,741,488; from Post and Telegraphs, £539,780 (estimated); from other sources, £630,229—Total revenue, £7,607,754. The estimated mean population of the same period was about 1,037,600; therefore the revenue per head was £7 6s. 8d.; and the taxation per head was £2 18s. 7d.

[3] The proportion of the revenue of Victoria and New Zealand derived from "Other Taxes" and "Post and Telegraphs" has been roughly estimated, and there is no reliable means of verifying the figures.

[4] Exclusive of tramways. See footnote (1) to Table X. post.

[5] Including revenue returned to the extent of at least £235,800—viz., £23,904, being repayments to credit of votes; £79,180, for drawbacks and refunds of duty; £27,684, railway revenue collected for the Victorian Government; about £105,100, being other revenue returned, &c.

[6] Including licences, £52,723, formerly classed under "Other Sources."

[7] Inclusive of revenue from gold-fields, £13,588.

[8] In calculating the amounts for Victoria the mean population during the year 1886-7 (1,003,100) has been taken. For the other colonies, the figures of mean population shown in the last column of Table I. have been used.

[1] According to a statement made up in the Treasury, in July, 1888, the approximate expenditure of Victoria for the year 1887–8 was as follows:—Railways, £1,57c,139; Post and Telegraphs, £524,367; Interest, &c., on Public Debt, £1,433,526; Other Services, £3,817,650—Total Expenditure, £7,345,650 or £7 18. 7d. per head of population.

[2] See footnote (5) to last table.

[3] Interest only.

[4] Exclusive of payments to the sinking fund, (viz., £258,184) formerly charged to revenue, but now virtually provided for out of a loan raised for the purpose.

[5] In calculating the amounts for Victoria, the mean population during the year 1886-7 (1,037,600) has been taken. For the other colonies the figures of mean population shown in the last column of Table I. have been used.

NOTE.—On the 30th June, 1888, the Public Debt of Victoria was £34,627,382. The estimated population at that date was 1,060,420, and the approximate revenue of the financial year ended with that date was £7,607,754. The amount of indebtedness per head was thus £32 13s. 1d., and the debt was equivalent to 4·55 years' revenue. Since the end of 1887 New South Wales floated a fresh loan in London for £3,500,000, Queensland one for £2,500,000, and New Zealand one for £2,000,000.

[1] Included with other public works.
[2] Including other buildings.
[3] The figures for New Zealand represent the bulk of the expenditure out of loans, i.e., net expenditure out of the "Public Works Fund," since 1870, the date of the first Immigration and Public Works Loan; it is however stated that, besides loan moneys, receipts in aid from Stamp duties, &c., contributed somewhat towards the total sum so expended. The balance required to make up the total debt at the end of 1887 has been entered as "Unapportioned."
[4] In New Zealand, a portion of the expenditure on "Defences" is included under the head of "Harbours," &c., and a portion is under the head of "Unapportioned."
[5] Consisting chiefly of unexpended balances.
[6] As a set-off against the public debt, New Zealand possessed an accrued sinking fund amounting, on the 31st December, to £3,271,502; the net liability for that colony was, therefore, £34,954,035, or £57 18s. 8d. per head of population, and equal to 9·25 times the revenue. The sinking funds possessed by the other colonies are comparatively small, consisting of the following amounts:—Victoria, £52,393; Western Australia, £59,147; and Tasmania, £89,031.
[7] In calculating these results, the populations on the 31st December shown in the fifth column of Table I. have been used.
[8] In calculating these results, the figures of public revenue given in Table IV. have been used.
[9] Consisting of "Repayment of Loans," £1,335,230; and Public Works, Queensland (when it formed part of New South Wales), £49,856. The former amount should properly have been distributed under the purposes for which the original loan was raised.
[10] Consisting of General Public Works for Northern Territory.
[11] Debentures redeemed, amounting to £74,000, have been deducted from the amount returned for "Other Services," since the purposes were not specified for which the original loans thereby paid off were raised.
[12] Interest and Sinking Fund.
[13] Including £1,141,288 land purchases (presumably from the Maoris), and £33,585 rates on native lands.
[14] Consisting of the old provincial loans of New Zealand, raised prior to the abolition of provinces in 1876, loans not accounted for, and the unspent balances of loan moneys; also £916,561 for charges and expenses of raising loans. No particulars of the purposes to which the former were applied are available.

NOTE.—The figures are for the year ended 30th June, 1887, for Victoria; for that ended 31st March, 1888, for New Zealand; and for that ended 31st December for the other colonies. On the 30th June, 1888, the extent of lines opened in Victoria had increased to 2,018 miles, and the cost of construction to £27,268,258; whilst the gross receipts for 1887–8 amounted to £2,756,049, the working expenses to £1,753,019, and the net receipts to £1,003,030. The latter was equivalent to 3·82 per cent. of the capital cost. In addition to the Victorian lines open, there were, on the 30th June, 1888, 493 miles in progress, and 305 miles authorized, but not commenced.

[1] These columns do not include tramways, of which there were in Victoria, at the end of 1887, 21½ miles (chiefly cable) constructed by the Melbourne municipalities, but let to a private company; in New South Wales, 51 miles (steam), constructed by Government at a capital cost of £923,608, the gross receipts from which amounted in 1887 to £229,773, and the working expenses to £215,639; in Queensland, 9 miles; and in Western Australia, constructed by timber companies, 100 miles. The cost of construction of the cable tramways of Victoria (including expenditure on lines in progress), at the end of 1887, was £1,050,740, and the receipts during the year amounted to £196,318.

[2] The calculations in this column are based on the mean of the amounts of capital cost at the beginning and end of the year.

[3] Including railways authorized.

[4] Including expenditure on lines in progress.

[5] This is below the true proportion, as the capital cost, on which the rate is based, includes expenditure on lines in progress, which were necessarily unproductive.

[6] Exclusive of a Land-grant railway being constructed from Albany to Beversley—a distance of 242 miles—which will be opened about the beginning of 1889.

[7] The minus (—) sign indicates a net loss, or excess of working expenses over receipts.

[8] Included with the Government lines in Tasmania are 133 miles guaranteed by the State, constructed at a cost of £976,957. The other private lines in that colony cost £153,209; whilst the receipts during the year amounted to £17,230, and the working expenses to £8,529.

[9] Of the Tasmanian lines, 45 miles have an additional rail, giving a 5 ft. 3 in. gauge as well for that portion.

[1] Subject to certain regulations and restrictions, newspapers posted in New South Wales and Queensland travel free to any of the Australasian colonies, and those posted in Western Australia and Tasmania travel free to all places. In the other colonies a small postage fee is charged on newspapers.

[2] This probably includes commission on money orders in all the colonies.

[3] Approximate only. The total revenue, inclusive of Telegraphs, &c., was £421,790, and if allowance were made for official correspondence and telegrams, which are transmitted without charge, the total would be increased to about £488,000.

[1] The purchase-money for selected land varies in the different colonies from 10s. to 30s. per acre, payable by annual instalments (often without interest) extending over a period of 10 or 20 years. For particulars of the terms and conditions under which such land is held, see Victorian Year-Book 1887-8, Vol. II., paragraph 1055.
[2] Including water area, amounting to about 2,000,000 acres.
[3] This represents the area leased, with option of purchase on certain conditions under the Land Act of 1884.
[4] Exclusive of surrendered lands re-selected under the Act of the 31st August, 1884.
[5] This low average is explained by the circumstance that a large portion of the purchase money was previously paid as rent. The price of rural land is 10s. per acre.
[6] Of this area, 81,598 acres were granted to Natives, or Europeans who purchased from them, under Native Land Acts.
[7] Including only that of which the purchase has been completed.
[8] Exclusive of the extent estimated to have been forfeited for non-fulfilment of conditions, &c.
[9] Including land granted without purchase.
[10] Included with the area "Sold."
[11] These figures relate partly to lands in respect to which Crown Grants have been issued either to the original Maori possessors, or to Europeans or Maoris who have purchased from them, under certain Native Land Acts.
[12] Of this extent, about 14,000,000 acres belong to the Maoris, or to Europeans who have purchased from them; and 150,218 acres were held under "Perpetual Lease."

NOTE.—The State system of education is compulsory and undenominational (or secular) in all the colonies, and Western Australia is now the only colony which grants assistance to denominational (private) schools. Public instruction is free in Victoria, Queensland, and New Zealand; but fees are charged in the other colonies, although they are partially or entirely remitted in cases where the parents are unable to pay them. The prescribed school age differs in the various colonies—in Victoria it is from 6 to 15 years, in New South Wales from 6 to 14, in Queensland from 6 to 12, in South Australia from 7 to 13, in Tasmania from 7 to 14, and in New Zealand from 7 to 13 years. For a complete account of the educational systems of the various colonies, see Victorian Year-Book 1880–81, pp. 431 to 459.

* Where asterisks occur, the figures have not been furnished or are incomplete.

[1] These figures have been estimated in the office of the Government Statist, Melbourne.

[2] Including 16 assisted schools.

[3] Figures for 1886, those for 1887 not having been furnished.

[4] Exclusive of expenditure towards capital cost of buildings, &c. In Victoria, the cost of instruction is considered to be merely the expenditure immediately connected with the instruction of scholars, such as teachers' salaries, &c. But if the expenditure on the Head Office staff, on inspection, on the maintenance and rent of buildings, and retiring allowances, &c., to teachers, were also included, the amount in 1887 would exceed £628,000. It is not certain what principle has been adopted in the other colonies.

[5] For extra subjects only.

[6] Approximate figures only.

[7] Including £29,627 from Education Reserves.

TABLE XV.—AGRICULTURAL STATISTICS, 1887-8.—LAND IN CULTIVATION.

 The Agricultural Statistics in most of the colonies are collected in the months of February or March of each year. The present returns are for those months of 1888. In calculating the rates of tillage per head, the population on the 31st December, 1887, has been taken.

NOTE.—Land in fallow is included in the total area under tillage in all the colonies, except New South Wales; but land under permanent artificial grasses is not included in Queensland, Western Australia, and New Zealand. See also Notes 2, 3, and 11.

[1] Including beans and pease, except in the case of New South Wales.

[2] In addition to crops sown for the purpose of being cut green for cattle, this column contains the following areas laid down in permanent artificial grass in the colonies named:—Victoria, 158,047 acres; New South Wales, 192,678 acres; South Australia, 23,217 acres; Western Australia, only a small area returned; Tasmania, 184,653 acres. In Queensland, where it is not so included, the area returned is 13,619 acres. For extent of such land in New Zealand, see Note 11.

[3] In the returns of some of the colonies, this column embraces land in fallow as well as land under crop. The following are the areas in fallow included in the returns of such colonies:—Victoria, 364,480 acres; New South Wales, not returned; Queensland, 16,892 acres; South Australia, 450,536 acres; Western Australia, 39,420 acres; Tasmania, 21,002 acres; New Zealand, 154,266 acres.

[4] Including 788 acres under turnips, carrots, parsnips, cabbage, and beet, which produced 8,774 tons; 1,191 acres under mangel wurzel, which produced 20,590 tons; 2,437 acres under onions, which produced 11,774 tons; 1,966 acres under tobacco, which produced 11,853 cwt.; 249 acres under chicory, which produced 1,375 tons; 685 acres under hops, which produced 5,405 cwt.; 4,638 acres under grass seeds, which produced about 6,177 bushels; &c.

[5] Including 2,371 acres under tobacco, which produced 23,465 cwt.; 15,287 acres (of which 2,168 acres were unproductive) under sugar-cane, which produced 273,928 cwt. of sugar; 8,875 acres under orange trees, which produced 8,704,677 dozen oranges; and 20,677 acres under gardens and orchards.

[6] Rice.

[7] Including 51,815 acres under sugar-cane, of which that grown on 36,806 acres was crushed, and yielded 60,806 tons of sugar; 174 acres under arrowroot, which produced 216,184 lbs.; 992 acres under orange trees, which produced 772,380 dozen oranges; 2,048 acres under bananas, which produced 6,268,652 dozen; 567 acres under pineapples, which produced 208,694 dozen; 128 acres under tobacco, which produced 424 cwt.

[8] No Agricultural Statistics having been collected in South Australia in either of the last three years, the figures for 1884-5, except in regard to wheat, which have been estimated, have been again repeated for that colony.

[9] Including 1,985 acres under turnips, which produced 7,351 tons; 816 acres under mangel wurzel, which yielded 5,842 tons; and 3,865 acres in gardens and orchards. The remainder consisted of fenced and cleared land, not strictly under tillage, devoted to pastoral purposes.

[10] No account taken.

[11] In the figures for New Zealand, the land under permanent artificial grass, amounting to 5,869,634 acres—of which about one-half had been, and the other half had not been, previously ploughed—is not entered as green forage, nor is it included in the total area under tillage, as in the majority of the other colonies. Were the whole so placed, it would bring the land under tillage up to 7,309,689 acres, or to 12·11 acres per head of the population.

[12] Including 4,202 acres under mangolds, beet, carrots, parsnips, &c.: 519 acres under hops; 19 acres under tobacco; and 24,937 acres under gardens and orchards, and 3,027 under other crops.

[1] These figures are made up of the sum of the total quantities exported from and used for manufactures in, less the quantities imported by, the respective colonies. The wool referred to is, of course, not homogeneous in quality, some being greasy and some washed and scoured. The Government Statistician of New South Wales has estimated that the equivalent weight in greasy wool of the whole clip for that colony was 256,072,430 lbs.

NOTE.—The figures for Victoria, New South Wales, and Queensland express the quantity and value of all the gold known to have been raised in those colonies since the period of its first discovery in Australia in 1851; those for South Australia are estimated partly from the returns of the Melbourne and Sydney Mints, and partly from the export returns; those for New Zealand express the total exports of gold from the earliest period; and those for Tasmania express the quantity known to have been raised since 1866, there being no record of the gold raised prior to that period. There are no reliable returns of the gold raised in Western Australia, although a considerable quantity has been obtained on the Kimberley gold-fields of that colony; the quantities set down above is all that has passed through the Customs.

[1] In Victoria the average value of the gold raised is £4 per oz., and in Queensland £3 16s. per oz. The purity, and consequently the value, varies considerably in different districts. Standard gold (i.e. 22 carats fine) is worth £3 17s. 10½d., and pure gold £4 4s. 11½d. per oz.

[1] It is believed by the Registrar-General of Fiji that the births, deaths, and marriages here given are less than those which actually occurred.

[2] The total area alienated at the end of 1887 was 399,255 acres. The amount realized by the State to the end of 1885 was only £26,259, which, however, represents the price of but a small proportion of the acreage alienated. The majority of the grants issued were for lands acquired by whites and others previously to annexation, and these received their titles at the nominal price of One shilling.

[3] In addition to the live stock referred to in these columns, about 11,400 angora goats were kept on the islands.

[4] Returns from Europeans only.
